

Fibers from Nature -5 (seed dispersal fibers)

JASVEEN DUA

READ REVIEWS

WRITE A REVIEW

CORRESPONDENCE:
surinder1027@gmail.com

DATE RECEIVED:
October 08, 2018

© dua This article is distributed under the terms of the Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License, which permits unrestricted use, distribution, and redistribution in any medium, provided that the original author and source are credited.

The more we explore, the more fascinating things are revealed. The fibers seen in a weed could be so amazing and strongly woven is beyond imagination. Foldscopy of a weed with its seed entangled in a tuft of cottony fibres is wonderful. Probably the fibers aid in seed dispersal.

The details of this exploration is beyond my imagination which i would be sharing in my next post.