What is the reason behind pollen of different size? In my slide I could see one pollen smaller and other larger under a foldscope.